

Western Agencies Sage and Columbian Sharp-tailed Grouse Workshop

Call for papers

We welcome oral presentations related to the biology, behavior, management, and conservation of sage grouse and sharp-tailed grouse. Although no formal poster session is being planned, arrangements for posters may be provided if requested. All PowerPoint presentations must be provided on CD at the beginning of the workshop.

Deadline for receipt of abstract: May 14, 2004 (at the latest)

Audiovisual requirements (circle or highlight):	PowerPoint projector Slide projector
Would you consider chairing a session?
Full name of presenting author:
Mailing address of presenting author:
City and State/Province of presenting author:
Zip/Postal Code of presenting author:
Phone number of presenting author:
E-mail of presenting author:

Please submit your abstract in the following format by e-mail to Michael A. Schroeder with the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife at schromas@dfw.wa.gov. Please place your abstract in the body of the e-mail.

Title of presentation

Full name of each author (highlight name of presenter in bold), Affiliation, Mailing address, E-mail address

Abstract (maximum of 250 words): Each abstract should summarize the objectives, methods, results, and conclusions.

Graphics provided by Brian Maxfield

